

TOURISM MINISTER AND NTB BID FAREWELL TO FOREIGN JOURNALISTS

The Minister of Tourism and Cultural Affairs, Dr Memunatu Pratt and the Management of the National Tourist Board (NTB) today Monday 1st May 2023 bade farewell to a galaxy of International journalists from different outlets in Europe who visited the country to create networking and explore Sierra Leone tourism markets.

TOURISM MINISTER AND NTB BID FAREWELL TO FOREIGN JOURNALISTS

Heel and Drums

Speaking to the international journalists at the Prestigious Country Lodge Restaurant, Hill Station, Freetown, the dynamic and proactive Minister of Tourism and Cultural Affairs, Dr Memunatu Pratt on behalf of His Excellency the President, Rtd. Brig. Julius Maada Bio thanked and appreciated the foreign media guys who visited the country. He encouraged them to come to Sierra Leone at any time and urged them to write good stories about the country. The International journalists from UK, Germany, Netherlands, Spain and Belgium were in Sierra Leone to assess Sierra Leone's tourism markets.

